

*There's no such thing
as a bad memory
only an untrained one.*

Remember All Their Names with Neil A. Kutzen

RESCHEDULED to Thursday, May 9th, 5:30pm-7:00pm at RiverCourt Residences, 8 West Main Street, Groton, MA 01450

Free and open to the community. Light appetizers and refreshments will be served.

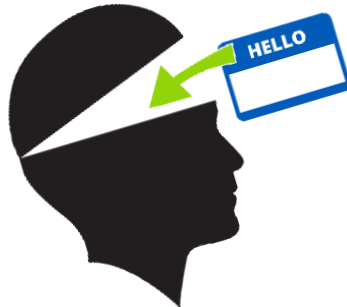

Pre-register to Marisa at: mgraham@rivercourtresidences.com or 978-448-4122

Please Join us for an Informative & Fun

event where you'll learn to train your memory!

Why is Remembering Names Important?

- ✓ Make better first impressions
- ✓ Avoid embarrassment
- ✓ Make better business and social connections

About Neil A. Kutzen

Neil has a BA and MA in Clinical Psychology. In his long and distinguished career as a trainer to businesses, he has helped thousands of people improve their productivity and personal effectiveness. He is an actor, award winning story teller and expert memory trainer.

Sponsored by

